Code of Conduct: Volunteer

The Clontarf Cricket Club thrives because of the unwavering dedication of our volunteers. Whether coaching, organising events, or maintaining facilities, their selfless contributions shape our cricket community. To maintain the highest standards and ensure a positive environment, we have established this Volunteer Code of Conduct. By adhering to these principles, our volunteers not only enhance the club's operations but also uphold the true spirit of cricket.

1. Uphold and promote the 'Spirit of Cricket' at all times. Encourage respect for teammates, opponents, and the traditions of cricket.
2. Support the coaches in their mission to develop the players' cricket skills, understanding of the game, and love for the sport.
3. Respect the club's policy on balanced team selection and rotation system. Support the coaches' decisions on team selection.
4. Always prioritise the well-being, development, and safety of players. Their growth as cricketers and individuals is our ultimate goal.
5. Embrace diversity and inclusivity. Ensure all children, regardless of skill level or ability, feel valued and have equal opportunities to participate.
6. Support the coaches in their efforts to develop a comprehensive set of skills in players, including batting, bowling, fielding, and tactics.
7. Prioritise player safety. Support the implementation of best practices for warm-ups, equipment use, and injury prevention.
8. Beyond the cricket field, help instil important values such as teamwork, respect, and discipline. Our goal is to contribute to the holistic development of our young players, preparing them not just for the game of cricket, but for life.
9. Maintain a high standard of professional conduct. Avoid any behaviour that could bring the club into disrepute.
10. Adhere to all club policies, including Garda vetting and Child Safeguarding training.

Remember, as a volunteer, your actions and behaviour significantly influence our young cricketers. Let us continue to uphold the spirit of cricket and the values of Clontarf Cricket Club. Thank you for your dedication and cooperation.
